

AGENDA

TRESTLE Annual Meeting: Keeping Student Learning on Track

September 28-30, 2017

Indiana University Bloomington

Central Questions to be addressed at this Meeting: What do you want to change about your students' learning? Where are they struggling? How are you tracking the impact of your course changes on your students' learning? What have you learned from your students' learning, and how has/will this impact how you teach your course?
